Paper 3

1. What data analysis issue does this paper highlight?

2. What techniques does the paper present to address the issue they discuss?

3. What experiment did the authors perform to demonstrate the analysis issue they were discussing?

4. What was the result of the experiment before corrections?

5. What was the result of the experiment after corrections?

6. Is this issue only relevant to neuroscience or fMRI analysis?